SUBJECT: THERE IS A NATIONAL EMERGENCY BUT IT IS NOT ON THE US SOUTHERN BORDER IT IS IN THE WHITE HOUSE

The Constitution Party of Virginia believes there is a National Emergency but it is NOT located on the US Southern Border, but in the White House. Mr. John Bloom, Chairman of the Constitution Party of Virginia, doesn't often agree with Speaker Nancy Pelosi, but he agrees with her TWICE in one day. When Speaker Pelosi, stated that "Congress cannot let the President shred the Constitution" and "we call upon our Republican colleagues to defend the US Constitution." The National Emergency is NOT on the US Southern Border but in the White House. Mr. Bloom urges the House of Representatives not to waste time in the courts, but immediately pass Articles of Impeachment against Donald Trump for USURPING the Constitutional Authority of Congress and CIRCUMVENTING the US Constitution.

There have been two major National Emergencies in the past hundred years, when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor and the 9-11 attacks. In BOTH cases the Presidents at that time appealed to CONGRESS to take action. President Franklin Delano Roosevelt asked Congress for a "Declaration of War" and Congress granted his request. During the 9-11 attacks, President George W. Bush, grounded air travel to prevent the possibility of more attacks, which was within his Constitutional authority to do. President Bush in the days following the 9-11 attacks prepared a plan to present to CONGRESS, which they did approve. In both of those cases, America came together and were UNITED and neither President used those emergencies to circumvent the US Constitution and the powers granted to Congress under Article I of the US Constitution. The Constitution of the United States placed significant restrictions on the President by our founding fathers, as they feared that someday the American people would elect a "king" and they were right. Democrat "king" Barrack Obama was elected for eight years and used Executive Orders like Royal Proclamations and Donald Trump, the Republican "king" did the same. Only this time, the Democrats, unlike the Republicans before them, are willing to stand up to the "king".

Mr. Bloom issues the following statement:

"As a former US Naval Officer, I took an oath to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies both foreign and DOMESTIC, and I always kept that oath. I ask others in Congress, Republicans and Democrats to stand TOGETHER against the IMPERIAL President and I ask Representative Justin Amash to organize Republicans in the House of Representative to stand with Democrats in the House to pass Articles of Impeachment against Donald Trump for CIRCUMVENTING the US Constitution and Usurping Congressional Powers. I ask Senator Rand Paul to organize Republicans in the US Senate to vote to remove Donald Trump and replace him with Mike Pence. I say to all Americans, "Mike Pence for President in 2019!"
