

Virginians Running for President Defend Second Amendment

December 17, 2019

Two Virginia candidates for President of the United States made public appearances on Monday December ninth.

Charles Kraut spoke before the Rockbridge County Board of Supervisors in favor of a resolution to make the county a Second Amendment Sanctuary County. He reminded those attending that the 2nd Amendment recognizes the pressing need for well organized state militias, but that is by no means the sole reason why the right of the people of the United States to bear arms shall not be infringed. He went on to say that we need to go farther and defend the Constitution against the philosophy that is called Progressivism.

Sheila "Samm" Tittle attended the "God.Family.Guns" rally at the state capital in Richmond to fight attempts by the Democratic majority Legislature to impose new restrictions on gun ownership. Samm has asserted in her literature that such disarmament as proposed by the Democrats would do nothing to stop or prevent mass shootings. She believes the language of our constitution is clear and unambiguous, "Shall not be infringed," gives you a right to openly carry a firearm as well as keep them in your home.
