John B. Bloom, Chairman Constitution Party of Virginia, (CPV) CPofvirginia@gmail.com, (757)806-8694

SUBJECT: CONSTITUTION PARTY OF VIRGINIA NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT ASK MEDIA ORGANIZATIONS TO HAVE VIRTUAL INTERVIEWS WITH THEM DUE TO THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

While Presidential and Vice-Presidential Nominees from other political parties are holding rallies across the country and risk spreading the Coronavirus the Constitution Party of Virginia Nominees for President, Sheila "Samm" Tittle and Vice-President David Sandidge are appealing to News Organizations to coordinate having Virtual Interviews with them. Chairman of the Constitution Party of Virginia, John Bloom, coordinated a Virtual Interview between Ms. Tittle and the Christopher Newport University Student Newspaper, "The Captain's Log" Editor, Anna Dorl, and we thank her for that opportunity. Chairman Bloom did not ask volunteers to risk their health and the health of others to collect 2,500 signatures as Judicial Decision by President Barrack Obama appointee Judge John Gibney required. I hope someone in the media cares about the health of all Virginians, including those that are NOT Republican or Democrat. The Constitution of the United States only requires that a person be a Natural Born Citizen (Both Parents are US Citizens by Birth), over 35 years of age and spent a minimum of 14 consecutive years in the United States. States do not have the right to deny ballot access to anyone that meets those requirements. For Democrats and Republicans to pass laws adding additional requirements to other political parties it is not only UNCONSTITUTIONAL but also a CONFLICT OF INTEREST. In the United States of America, the Constitution protects, the smallest of MINORITIES, the individual.

Chairman Bloom asks other News Organizations to contact him and coordinate an interview at (757)806-8694 or (757)232-5999 or at this email address.
