SUBJECT: CONSTITUTION PARTY OF VIRGINIA CHAIRMAN URGES DEMOCRATS TO LET REPRESENTATIVE JUSTIN AMASH LEAD THE IMPEACHMENT PROCESS IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Chairman of the Constitution Party of Virginia, John Bloom, urges Speaker of the House of Representatives Nancy Pelosi and House Democrats to allow Representative Justin Amash to take the lead on the Impeachment Process of Donald J. Trump. Doing so would deflect any criticism Trump and his Republican allies away from the Democrats and UNPOLITICIZE the Impeachment Process. Representative Amash received VINDICATION and was EXHONERATED by Special Counsel Robert Mueller NOT Donald Trump, in his statement, "If we had had confidence that the President had clearly not committed a crime, we would have said so." Representative Amash, being a Republican, would ensure a fair and honest and Non-Partisan Impeachment Process.

The Constitution Party of Virginia disagrees with the United States Justice Department's belief that a sitting President cannot be indicted, nowhere in the Constitution of the United States does it prohibit the President of the United States from being charged with a crime. Our Founding Fathers feared that someday the American People may "elect" a "king" and that is why Article II, Section 4, the Impeachment Clause, was written, to allow Congress to remove a President for placing the Nation at risk and acting like a "king".

As for Speaker Pelosi's concern about the Republican Controlled Senate would not vote to convict and remove President Trump from office and replace him with a President Mike Pence, there are many Republicans that would cheer that outcome. In addition to that the Republicans would have the responsibility to conduct the IMPEACHMENT TRIAL and they would be in a position to have a fair and open trial or face the backlash of the American People if it is a SHAM of a trial. This is NOT what Republicans in the Senate want to be FORCED into, by one man with Courage, Republican Rep Justin Amash and Democrats in the House of Representatives passing ARTICLES of IMPEACHMENT by just a simple majority. Let Rep. Justin Amash lead the fight to Impeach and Remove Donald Trump from office and "Make America a Constitutional Republic Again!"
