SUBJECT: REPUBLICAN SENATORS HAVE A CHOICE FOR THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT - AN IMPEACHED PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP OR A PRESIDENT MIKE PENCE?

There has never been an Impeached President of the United States, run for Re-election; will Donald Trump be the First? Will the Republican Senators have a fair Trial and REMOVE Donald Trump from Office and REPLACE him with Mike Pence or a SHAM of a Trial and retain Donald Trump as President and take their chances with an Impeached Donald Trump as their Nominee for President? This will NOT reverse the election of 2016, as a President Mike Pence will continue much of the same policies as Donald Trump, except maybe removing the Trump Tariffs, and cleanse the office of the President of the United States, as Senator Lindsey Graham said of President Bill Clinton in the 1990's.

John Bloom, Chairman of the Constitution Party of Virginia, used to be a volunteer for Senator Ted Cruz's Campaign for President, and he understands Donald Trump's most loyal supporters, are loyal only to HIM, not the Constitution of the United States, not the TRUTH, many Reagan conservatives, like Mr. Bloom, refer to them as the "CULT 45", and it is these people that now control the Republican Party and all Republican Members of Congress. Republican Members of Congress believe that if Donald Trump is REMOVED from office, members of the CULT 45 may stay home and not come out to vote for them. The Republican Party knows many have left the Republican Party because of Donald Trump, Rep. Justin Amash is not an anomaly, and replacing Trump with Mike Pence, would bring many back to the Republican Party.

Republican Senators, especially Senator Ted Cruz, who once called Donald Trump a FRAUD, know that Donald Trump is an UNPRINCIPLED Individual, who has supported abortion, "Red Flag" laws, "stop and Frisk" and increased background checks for purchasing firearms, would they trust Donald Trump, without the threat of re-election, God only knows the damage he can do to our Constitutional Rights, or would they prefer a much more stable and principled man as President, Mike Pence? The evidence is there for Republican Senators to remove Donald Trump as President and replace him with Mike Pence, but will these members of the Party of Cowards, grow a BACBONE and do the right thing, and REMOVE Trump as President.

Right now, the Republican Party is LOST without a MORAL Compass, and if Republican Senators vote to REMOVE Donald Trump from Office and REPLACE him with Mike Pence, they may find their MORAL COMPASS and a way back to the Party of Lincoln and Reagan.
